

MAY 12, 2016
7-8:30PM

Skills for Emotional Competence
Presented by: Dr. Janice Driver

Emotional struggles children endure during elementary school can be confusing. Every child is different. With guidance and support from Dr. Janice Driver, you will learn simple emotion coaching skills to help your child gain emotional intelligence.

GRAND RIDGE
PTSA

MANY HANDS + MANY HEARTS

Grand Ridge
PTSA brings
you:

Janice Driver, the Director at Eastside Parenting Clinic

(www.eastsideparentingclinic)

She specializes in parent and child interactions. She has a doctorate degree from the University of Washington and trained with Dr. John Gottman.

“The ability to successfully regulate emotion is the biggest predictor of success in school, at work, and in relationships, even above

IQ and socioeconomic status.” Dr. Janice Driver is an expert in the area of emotional competence and the specific role parents play in the advancement of this important skill.

Event will be held at the Grand Ridge Elementary – Library

Discussion is open to all Issaquah School District
Elementary Parents

Contact Diana Gonzalez dianamonroygonzalez@gmail.com for any questions.